GERMANY'S DOWNFALL.

LONDON BESIDE ITSELF WITH JOY.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

Germany has accepted the Armistice. The signing of the Armistice was officially announced at 10.30 a.m., although an unofficial rumour had gained currency a few minutes earlier. The news spread like wildfire, and there were extraordinary scenes of enthusiasm strongly mingled with expressions of thankfulness throughout the country. The public was beside itself with joy. Bells pealed and maroons were fired at all police and fire stations in celebration of the news.

FATE OF KERES AND DARIUS RECALLED.

KAISERISM GONE FOR EVER.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

London, surfeited with sensations and aware of the imminence of victory, received the news of the Kaiser's abdication on Saturday with comparative indifference, but the downfall of the Hohenzollerns and their ignominious flight to Holland is the absorbing topic in the newspapers.

The fate of Keres and Darius is recalled as a parallel to this ruin, more immense and sudden than any other Europe has ever witnessed.

Columns are published of extracts of the Kaiser's speech, and the hope is expressed that the "Imperial criminal" will not escape punishment for the misdeeds of the nation he misruled.

That the Kaiser has gone for ever is regarded as certain, but it is pointed out that there is the danger of a reaction in favour of "Kaiserism" if the German people, through his disappearance, escaped the penalties for the crimes they applauded.

There were unparalleled scenes of enthusiasm at Downing Street. The Premier appeared at the window with

Mr. Bonar Law. The Premier, addressing the huge crowd, said:—
"You are entitled to rejoice. The people of Great Britain, the Allies, the Dominions and of India have won a glorious victory. It was the sons and daughters of the people who won it. It is the most wonderful victory for liberty in the history of the world."
Mr. Balfour, walking across from the Foreign Office, was hemmed in by cheering crowds, to whom he addressed a few words.

LONDON, Nov. 11.
Most enthusiastic scenes continue everywhere. A veritable sea of people outside Buckingham Palace and along the Mall frantically cheered their Majesties, who appeared on the balcony of the Palace. Large cheering crowds surrounded the Duke of Connaught and Princess Patricia, who were motoring on the Mall. Thousands crowded round captured German guns, a hundred of which are being exhibited in the Mall. Many were taken in the procession with a dozen to a score of persons riding on each.

PEOPLE DEEPLY MOVED.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

There were great scenes of excitement and joy in the streets of London when the Lord Mayor, wearing his gold chain of office, and standing in the porch of the Mansion House, announced the signing of the Armistice to a huge crowd.

Scores of crummed umbrellas baled in front of the Mansion House steps, those outside waving flags frantically. The National Anthem was sung with bared heads, and then the hymn "Now thank we all our God." The people, especially, were deeply moved. Tears streamed down many faces.

Whitehall, Downing Street and Trafalgar Square were also packed with people. The band of the Highlanders headed a huge impromptu procession to the Strand.

There was an unforgettable scene at No. 10, Downing Street, where, responding to the terrific calls, the Premier, accompanied by Mr. Bonar Law and Mr. Winston Churchill, re-appeared at the window, and made a brief speech, paying a tribute to all who had participated in this great victory, including the Dominions, Colonies, and Allies and the munition workers. He concluded by saying: "Let us thank God."

The crowd waved Union Jacks and hats and cheered prolongedly.

H. M. KING'S ADDRESS.

LONDON, Nov. 10.
H.M. the King, addressing a great crowd from the balcony of the Palace, said: "With you I rejoice and thank God for the victories which the Allies have won, which brought hostilities to an end and peace within sight."

HOSTILITIES SUSPENDED.

MARSHAL FOCH'S ORDERS.

LONDON, Nov. 11.
A wireless French official message says—
Marshal Foch has telegraphed to the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied troops: "You will not, until further orders, go beyond the line reached at 11 o'clock on the morning of November 11th."
A German official message says—
The Armistice, signed at 5 o'clock in the morning, operates at 11 o'clock on the morning of November 11th. Delay is prolonged for 24 hours for evacuation of the left bank of the Rhine besides the five days, making 31 days in all. Modification of the text compared with that brought by Captain Heldorf will be transmitted.

The above apparently refers to a condition of the Armistice terms which have not yet been issued.

PRESIDENT WILSON SAYS:

"And when you give it, give absolutely all that you can spare, and don't consider yourself liberal in the giving. If you give with self-adulation, you are not giving at all, you are giving to your own vanity; but if you give until it hurts, then your heart-blood goes into it."

It has been said that St. Andrew's Society is allocating too much of the War Bond Drawing receipts to War Charities. Just think for a minute of the War and not of the Drawing; think of the tragedy beyond words, which is being enacted on the battle front; think of the vast relief organisation and the money that is needed to uphold it; and think of your own duty in the matter. No, we are not giving too much; we are not giving enough.

THE GERMAN ARMISTICE.

TERMS THAT WILL END THE WAR.

London, November 11.

The following are the terms of the German Armistice which are being read by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons this afternoon:—

A.—Clause relating to Western Front.

1.—Cessation of operations by land and in the air six hours after the signature of the Armistice.

2.—Immediate evacuation of invaded countries, Belgium, France, Alsace-Lorraine, Luxembourg, so ordered as to be completed within 14 days from the signature of the Armistice. German troops which have not left the above mentioned territories within the period fixed will become prisoners of war. Occupation by the Allied and United States forces jointly will keep pace with evacuation in these areas. All movements of evacuation and occupation will be regulated in accordance with a Note (Annexure 1).

3.—Repatriation, beginning at once, to be completed within fourteen days of all inhabitants of the countries above enumerated, including hostages, persons under trial or convicted.

4.—Surrender in good condition by the German Armies of the following equipment:—3,000 guns (2,500 heavy, 2,500 field), 80,000 machine-guns, 3,000 minenwerfer, 2,000 aeroplanes (fighters, bombers first D 7s and night bombing machines). The above to be delivered in situ to the Allied and United States troops in accordance with the detailed conditions laid down in the Note (Annexure 7).

5.—Evacuation by the German Armies of the countries on the left bank of the Rhine. These countries on the left bank of the Rhine shall be administered by the local authorities under the control of the Allied and the United States armies of occupation. The occupation of these territories will be carried out by Allied and United States garrisons holding the principal crossings of the Rhine (Mayence, Coblenz, Cologne), together with bridgeheads at these points of a 30-kilometre radius on the right bank and by garrisons similarly holding the strategic points of the regions. A neutral zone shall be set up on the right bank of the Rhine between the river and a line drawn 10 kilometres distant starting from the Dutch frontier to the Swiss frontier; in the case of inhabitants no person shall be prosecuted for having taken part in any military measures previous to the signing of the Armistice. No measure of a general or official character shall be taken which would have as a consequence the depreciation of industrial establishments or a reduction of their personnel. Evacuation by the enemy of the Rhineland shall be so ordered as to be completed within a further period of 14 days. In all 25 days after the signature of the Armistice. All movements of evacuation and occupation will be regulated according to the Note (Annexure 1).

6.—In all territory evacuated by the enemy there shall be no evacuation of inhabitants; no damage or harm shall be done to the persons or property of the inhabitants. No destruction of any kind to be permitted. Military establishments of all kinds shall be delivered intact as well as military stores of food. Munitions and equipment not to be removed during the periods fixed for evacuation, stores of food of all kinds for the civil population, cattle, etc., shall be left in situ. Industrial establishments shall not be impaired in any way and their personnel shall not be moved.

7.—Roads and means of communication of every kind, railroads, waterways, main roads, bridges, telegraphs, and telephones shall be in no manner impaired. All civil and military personnel at present employed on them shall remain 5,000 locomotives, 150,000 wagons and 5,000 motor lorries in good working order with all necessary spare parts and fittings shall be delivered to the Associated Powers within the period fixed for the evacuation of Belgium and Luxembourg. The railways of Alsace-Lorraine shall be handed over within the same period, together with all pre-war personnel and material. Further, material necessary for the working of railways in the country on the left bank of the Rhine shall be left in situ. All stores of coal and material for the upkeep of permanent ways, signals, and repair shops shall be left in situ and kept as far as the means of communication are concerned in an efficient state by Germany during the whole period of the Armistice. All burges taken from the Allies shall be restored to them; the Note appended as Annexure 2 regulates the details of these measures.

8.—The German Command shall be responsible for revealing all mines or deadly action fuses disposed on territory evacuated by the German troops and shall assist in their discovery and destruction. The German Command shall also reveal all destructive measures that may have been taken (such as poisoning or pollution of springs, wells, etc.) under penalty of reprisals.

9.—The right of requisition shall be exercised by the Allied and United States Armies in all occupied territory, save for settlement of accounts with authorised persons; the upkeep of occupation in the Rhineland (excluding Alsace-Lorraine) shall be charged to the German Government.

10.—The immediate repatriation without reciprocity, according to the detailed conditions which shall be fixed, of all Allied and United States prisoners of war; the Allied Powers and the United States of America shall be able to dispose of these prisoners as they wish. However, the return of the German prisoners of war interned in Holland and Switzerland shall continue as heretofore. The return of German prisoners of war shall be settled at the peace preliminaries.

11.—Sick and wounded who cannot be removed from the evacuated territory will be cared for by German personnel, who will be left on the spot with the medical material required.

B.—Clauses relating to the Eastern Frontiers of Germany.

12.—All the German troops at present in any territory which before the war belonged to Russia, Rumania, or Turkey shall withdraw within the frontiers of Germany, as they existed on August 1st, 1914. And all the German troops at present in territories which before the war formed part of Russia must likewise return to within the frontiers of Germany as above defined as soon as the Allies shall think the moment suitable, having regard to the internal situation of these territories.

13.—Evacuation by German troops to begin at once; and all German instructors, prisoners, and civilian as well as military agents, now on the territory of Russia (as defined on August 1, 1914) to be recalled.

14.—German troops to cease at once all requisitions and seizures and any other undertakings with a view to obtaining supplies intended for Germany in Rumania and Russia, as defined on August 1, 1914.

15.—Abandonment of the Treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk and of the Supplementary Treaties.

16.—The Allies shall have free access to the territories evacuated by the Germans on their Eastern frontier, either through Danzig, or by the Vistula, in order to convey supplies to the populations of those territories, or for the purpose of maintaining order.

C.—Clause relating to East Africa.

17.—Unconditional evacuation of all German forces operating in East Africa, within one month.

D.—General Clauses.

18.—Repatriation, without reciprocity, within a maximum period of one month, in accordance with the detailed conditions hereafter to be fixed, of all civilians interned or deported who may be citizens of other Allied or Associated States than those mentioned in Clause 3.

19.—With the reservation that any future claims and demands of the Allies and the United States of America remain unaffected, the following financial conditions are required:—Repatriation for damages done. While the Armistice lasts, no public securities shall be removed by the enemy which can serve as a pledge to the Allies for the recovery of repatriation for war losses. Immediate restitution of the cash deposit in the National Bank of Belgium and in general, the immediate return of all documents, specie, stock, shares, paper money, together with the plants for the issue thereof, touching public or private interests in the invaded countries. Restoration of the Russian and Hungarian gold yielded to Germany or taken by that Power. This gold to be delivered in trust to the Allies until the signing of peace.

E.—Naval Conditions.

20.—Immediate cessation of all hostilities at sea and definite information to be given as to the location and movements of all German ships. Notification to be given to neutrals that freedom of navigation in all territorial waters is given to the naval and mercantile marines of the Allied and Associated Powers, all questions of neutrality being waived.

21.—All naval and mercantile marine prisoners of war of the Allied and Associated Powers in German hands to be returned, without reciprocity.

22.—In order to meet our wishes the text will be modified as follows:—Handing over to the Allies and the United States of all submarines (including all submarine cruisers and minelayers) which are at the present moment with their full complement in the ports specified by the Allies and United States. Those that cannot put to sea to be deprived of their crews and supplies and shall remain under the supervision of the Allies and the United States. Submarines ready to put to sea shall be prepared to leave German ports immediately on receipt of a wireless order to sail to the port of surrender, the remainder to follow as early as possible. The conditions of this Article shall be carried out within 14 days after the signing of the Armistice.

23.—The following German surface warships, which shall be designated by the Allies and the United States of America, shall forthwith be disarmed and thereafter interned in neutral ports, or, failing them, Allied ports, to be designated by the Allies and the United States of America, and placed under the surveillance of the Allies and the United States of America, only crewmembers being left on board, namely:

- 6 Battle cruisers.
- 10 Battle ships.
- 8 Light cruisers, including 2 minelayers.
- 50 Destroyers of the most modern type.

All other warships (including river craft) are to be concentrated in German naval bases to be designated by the Allies and the United States of America, and are to be paid off and completely disarmed and placed under the supervision of the Allies and the United States of America. All vessels of the auxiliary fleet (trawlers, motor vessels, etc.) are to be disarmed. All vessels specified for internment shall be ready to leave German ports seven days after the signing of the Armistice. Directions for voyage will be given by wireless.

Note.—A declaration has been signed by the Allied Delegates and handed to the German Delegates to the effect that in the event of ships not being handed over owing to the mutinous state of the fleet, the Allies reserve the right to occupy Heligoland as an advanced base to enable them to enforce the terms of the Armistice.

The German Delegates have on their part signed a declaration that they will recommend the Chancellor to accept this.

24.—The Allies and the United States of America shall have the right to sweep up all minefields and obstructions laid by Germany outside German territorial waters, and the positions of these are to be indicated.

25.—Freedom of access to and from the Baltic to be given to the naval and mercantile marines of the Allied and Associated Powers. To secure this the Allies and the United States of America shall be empowered to occupy all German forts, fortifications, batteries and defence works of all kinds in all the entrances from the Cuttign into the Baltic, and to sweep up all mines and obstructions within and without German territorial waters without any questions of neutrality being raised, and the positions of all such mines and obstructions are to be indicated.

26.—The existing blockade conditions set up by the Allied and Associated Powers are to remain unchanged, and all German merchant ships found at sea are to remain liable to capture. The Allies and the United States contemplate the provisioning of Germany during the Armistice as shall be found necessary.

27.—All naval aircraft are to be concentrated and immobilised in German bases to be specified by the Allies and the United States of America.

28.—In evacuating the Belgian coasts and ports, Germany shall abandon all merchant ships, tugs, lighters, cranes and all other harbour material, all materials for inland navigation, all aircraft and air materials and stores, all arms and armaments, and all stores and apparatus of all kinds.

29.—All Black Sea ports are to be evacuated by Germany; all Russian warships of all descriptions seized by Germany in the Black Sea are to be handed over to the Allies and the United States of America; all neutral merchant ships seized are to be released; all warlike and other materials of all kinds seized in those ports are to be returned and German materials, as specified in Clause 28 are to be abandoned.

30.—All merchant ships in German hands belonging to the Allies and Associated Powers are to be restored in ports to be specified by the Allies and the United States of America without reciprocity.

31.—No destruction of ships or of materials to be permitted before evacuation, surrender or restoration.

32.—The German Government shall formally notify the Neutral Governments of the world, and particularly the Governments of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, that all restrictions placed on the trading of their vessels with the Allied and Associated countries, whether by the German Government or by private German interests, and whether in return for specific concessions such as the export of shipbuilding material or not, are immediately cancelled.

33.—No transfers of German merchant shipping of any description to any Neutral flag are to take place after signature of the Armistice.

F.—Duration of the Armistice is to be 30 days with option to extend.

34.—During this period, on failure of execution of any of the above clauses, the Armistice may be denounced by one of the Contracting Parties, on 48 hours' previous notice.

G.—Time Limit for Reply.

35.—This Armistice to be accepted or refused by Germany within 72 hours of notification.
